Tuesday, April 7, 2020 - 15:53

Polski Holding Nieruchomości supports the fight against the coronavirus epidemic. The company decided to donate PLN 1 million to the Hotels for Medics Foundation, which will make it possible to finance the stay in hotels of medical staff and quarantined individuals who must undergo quarantine outside their homes.

"In these difficult times, we should all have the same goal — to stop the pandemic. Only united actions will help us to effectively stop COVID-19. Each of us can participate in these projects that will help stop the threat," said Marcin Mazurek, President of the Management Board of Polski Holding Nieruchomości S.A.

"This is how we want to help and express our deepest gratitude to all the people who are in the front lines of the fight against the epidemic. We want to thank the doctors, nurses, paramedics, medical analysts and members of support services who protect our life and health every day," added Marcin Mazurek.

On April 1, 2020, the Hotels for Medics Foundation was created. The foundation was established on the initiative of Polski Holding Hotelowy Sp. z o.o. Its goal is to support medical staff, especially those employees who are involved in the fight against coronavirus in hospitals that only accept patients diagnosed with COVID-19. The foundation will also support hospitals in searching for funds and transferring them to the isolation facilities run by the National Health Fund of Poland, which will accommodate people waiting for the results of coronavirus tests or patients with mild cases of COVID-19.

So far, apart from Polski Holding Nieruchomości and Polski Holding Hotelowy, the foundation has been supported by P.P. „Porty Lotnicze” and Polska Wytwórnia Papierów Wartościowych. The companies have so far declared a payment to the foundation in the total amount of PLN 3,250,000.
